Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Minister on being satisfied that the person in respect of whose pension or allowance any such direction shall have been given has ceased to be a director of such company or to be employed as an officer or servant of such company in Seychelles, as the case may be, to give directions for the restoration of such pension or allowance with retrospective effect, if he shall see fit, to such a date as he shall specify.

(2) Where any such officer to whom a pension, gratuity or other allowance has been granted under this Act dies after retirement from the service of the Colony or service of the Republic, and the sums paid or payable to him at his death on account of any pension, gratuity or other allowance in respect of any public service are less than the amount of the annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at the date of his retirement, it shall be lawful for the Minister to grant to his heirs or legal representatives a gratuity equal to the deficiency and such gratuity shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the estate of the deceased officer.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply in the case of the death of any officer where benefits corresponding to the benefits which may be granted under this section, are payable under the Colonial Superannuation Scheme in respect of such death.

16. Gratuity when pensioner dies

Whenever a public officer shall die, to whom a pension under the pension laws has been granted (with or without the option of a gratuity and reduced pension), it shall be lawful for the Minister to order that a gratuity of one month’s pension from the day following the date of his death, shall be paid to his heirs or legal representatives and such gratuity shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the estate of such deceased officer.

17. Minister’s decision final

(1) The decision of the Minister on any question which arises as to the application of sections 15 and 16 to any person or as to the amount to be paid to any person, shall be final.

(1) Where an officer holding a pensionable office who is not serving on probation or agreement dies as the direct result of injuries received—

(b) without his own default, and

(c) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duties, while in the service of the Colony or the service of the Republic, it shall be lawful for the Minister, to grant, in addition to the grant if any made to his heirs or legal representatives in accordance with section 15—

(ii) if the officer’s wife predeceases him or if no pension is granted to her under the preceding paragraph and he leaves children who would have been eligible for gratuity if a pension had been granted to the widow, gratuities of twice the amount of the gratuities for which they would have been eligible in such circumstances;

(iii) if the deceased officer does not leave a widow and his mother was wholly or mainly dependent on him for her support, a pension to the mother while of good character and without adequate means of support, at a rate not exceeding the rate of the pension which might have been granted to his widow:

(3) An officer who dies as a result of injuries received while travelling by air in pursuance of official instructions shall be deemed to have died in the circumstances detailed in paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (1):

Provided that in such a case and if the provision of paragraph (b) is also satisfied the rates of pension prescribed in paragraph (i) of that subsection shall be fifteen-sixtieths.

19. Application of Act

The provisions of this Act shall apply to all officers serving in the Colony or in the Republic or in both, at or after the commencement of the Act, and to all those who having served in the Colony have, before the commencement of the Act, been transferred to other public service and were still serving at the date of the commencement of this Act.
Provided that nothing herein contained or under any regulations framed under this Act shall be deemed to diminish the rights acquired by any person under the Pensions Act 1902 and 1928.

20. War services to count for pension purposes

Where an officer shall have served with His Majesty's Forces in time of war, or in the Royal Pioneer Corps, and before so serving shall have been employed in the public service, the following provisions shall have effect:—

(i) During the period of such service in His Majesty's Forces or in the Royal Pioneer Corps, including any period after the termination of the war (in this section referred to as 'military service'), he shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been on leave on full salary from the public service in which he was last employed, and to have held the substantive office last held by him in that service, prior to military service.

(ii) During any period between his leaving the public service for the purpose of serving in His Majesty's Forces or in the Royal Pioneer Corps and the date of his commencing military service, he shall, for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be on leave without pay, not granted on grounds of public policy, from the public service in which he was last employed, and to have held the substantive office last held by him in that service, prior to military service; and during any period between the termination of his military service and the date of his re-entering the public service he shall, for the said purposes, be deemed to be on leave as aforesaid from the service, and to have held the substantive office, in which he is re-employed:

Provided that—

(a) this section shall not apply when either period mentioned in paragraph (ii) of this section exceeds six months, or such longer period as the Minister, may in any special case determine; or if the officer fails, after serving with His Majesty's Forces or in the Royal Pioneer Corps, to re-enter the public service otherwise than in circumstances in which he would be permitted, under the law applicable to the public service in which he is last employed prior to military service, to retire on pension or gratuity, such circumstances arising not later than the expiration of six months, or such longer period as may be determined as aforesaid, after the termination of his military service;

(b) if during any period mentioned in paragraph (i) of this section the officer shall have qualified for pension, or received emoluments in lieu of pension rights, actually in respect of military service, paragraph (i) of this section shall, as respects that period, have effect as if the words 'leave without salary not granted on grounds of public policy' were substituted for the words 'leave on full salary';

(c) if during his military service the officer shall be injured or killed, he shall not, for the purposes of section 18 of this Act and regulation 13 in the Schedule to this Act, be deemed to have been injured or killed in the discharge of his duty;

(d) the provisions of this section which require that the officer shall be deemed to have held a specified office and to have been on leave from a specified service shall not apply in respect of any period during which he shall actually have held any other substantive office and have been on leave from any public service;
