Interpretation and General Provisions Act Chapter 103

Commenced on 6 September 1976

[This is the version of this document as it was at 1 December 2014 to 30 June 2021.]

[Act 22 of 1976; Dec 7 of 1977; Act 31 of 1980; Act 11 of 1982; Act 14 of 1984]

[Note: References to the Constitution in this Act are references to the Constitution in force on 31 December 1991]

Part I – Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Interpretation and General Provisions Act.

2. Application

- (1) This Act applies to the interpretation of and otherwise in relation to
  - (a) this Act;
  - (b) any other Act enacted before the commencement of this Act, except in so far as a contrary intention appears in this Act or in the other Act; and
  - (c) any other Act enacted after the commencement of this Act, except in so far as a contrary intention appears in the other Act.
- (2) Part X applies to a statutory instrument, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, except in so far as a contrary intention appears in this Act or in the Act under which the statutory instrument is or was made.

3. Republic bound

This Act binds the Republic.

Part II – General provisions relating to Acts

4. Acts to be public Acts

Every Act is a public Act and shall be judicially noticed as such.

5. Acts to be divided into sections

- (1) Every Act enacted after the commencement of this Act shall be divided into sections.
- (2) A section of an Act has effect as a substantive enactment without any introductory words.

6. Schedule, etc., part of an Act

- (1) A Schedule to or table in an Act is part of the Act,
- (2) Notes to a Schedule to or table in an Act are part of the Act.

7. Marginal notes, etc., not part of an Act

Marginal notes and headings in an Act and references to other Acts in the margin of or at the end of an Act do not form part of the Act and shall be treated as having been inserted for convenience or reference only.

8. Punctuation

Punctuation forms part of an Act, and regard shall be had to it accordingly in construing the Act.

Part III – Provisions relating to interpretation

9. Extent of application

An Act extends to the whole of Seychelles in its application.

10. Republic not bound

An Act does not bind the Republic unless it is expressed to do so or unless it appears to do so by necessary implication.

11. Acts always speaking

- (1) An Act shall be considered as always speaking.
- (2) An Act or thing expressed in an Act in the present tense shall be applied to the circumstances as they arise so that effect may be given to the Act and every part of the Act according to its true spirit.

12. International obligations

A construction of an Act which is consistent with the international obligations of Seychelles is to be preferred to a construction which is not.

13. Other rules of interpretation

This Act does not exclude the application in any particular case of a rule of interpretation not referred to in this Act, but if this Act applies in the particular case the rule is applicable subject to this Act.

14. Citation of references

- (1) Where a provision of an Act refers
  - (a) to a Part, section or Schedule by a number but does not identify it as being part of any particular Act, the reference shall be read and construed as a reference to the Part, section or Schedule, designated by that number, of or to the Act in which the reference occurs;
  - (b) to a Schedule but does not refer to it by a number or identify it as being a Schedule to any particular Act, the reference shall, if there is only one Schedule to the Act in which the reference occurs, be read and construed as a reference to the Schedule to the Act in which the reference occurs; or
  - (c) to a Division, subsection, paragraph, sub paragraph, clause, subclause, item or column by a number but does not identify it as being part of any particular Act, the reference shall be read and construed as a reference
    - (i) to the Division, designated by that number, of the Part in which the reference occurs;
    - (ii) to the subsection, designated by that number, of the section in which the reference occurs;

- (iii) to the paragraph, designated by that number, of the section, subsection, Schedule or definition, or of the clause, subclause, item or column of, or in the Schedule, in which the reference occurs;
- (iv) to the sub paragraph, designated by that number, of the paragraph in which the reference occurs; or
- (v) to the clause, subclause, item or column, designated by that number, of the Schedule in which the reference occurs, as the case may require.

- (2) In this section "number" means
  - (a) a number expressed in words or figures;
  - (b) a letter; or
  - (c) a combination of a number so expressed and a letter,with or without parenthesis.

15. Reference to a series of provisions

- (1) Where consecutive provisions of an Act are described by reference to the number or word by which the first and last of the provisions are designated, the description shall be read and construed as including the first and last of the provisions.
- (2) In this section "number" has the same meaning as in section 14.

16. Descriptive references to other Acts etc

Words in an Act descriptive of another Act, statutory instrument or document shall not be used as an aid to the construction of that other Act, statutory instrument or document and are intended for convenience of reference only.

17. Application of rules of interpretation

Definitions and rules of interpretation in an Act apply to the provisions containing them as well as to the other provisions of the Act.

18. Cognate words

Where a word is defined in an Act, any grammatical variation of the word or any cognate word in the Act has a meaning corresponding to that defined word.

19. Gender

In an Act words importing the masculine gender include females and words importing the feminine gender include males.

20. Singular and plural

In an Act words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular.

21. French expressions in Acts

- (1) Where in an Act terms or expressions of French Law are used, they shall be interpreted in accordance with French Law.

- (2) Where in an Act English words are followed by terms or expressions of French Law in parenthesis, subsection (1) applies to those terms and expressions and the English words shall be treated as being the equivalent only of those terms or expressions.

Part IV – Citation and commencement of Acts

23. Citation of Acts

- (1) An Act may be cited
  - (a) by its short title;
  - (b) by reference to the year in which it was enacted and its number among the Acts of that year; or
  - (c) by the Chapter number given to it in any revised edition of the Laws of Seychelles.

- (2) A reference to an Act in accordance with subsection (1) shall be made according to the short title, number or Chapter number used in copies of the Act printed by the Government Printer.

24. References to Act, etc., to include amendments

A reference in an Act to the Constitution, an Act, a statutory instrument or any provision thereof is a reference to the Constitution, the Act, the statutory instrument or the provision as from time to time amended.

25. Commencement of Acts

- (1) Every Act enacted after this Act shall be published in the Gazette.
- (2) An Act comes into operation on the date on which it is published in the Gazette or, if is provided that the Act is to come into operation on some other date, on that date.
- (3) Where provision is made in an Act for the coming into operation of some only of the provisions of the Act, the provisions of the Act for which no such provision is made come into operation on the date on which the Act is published in the Gazette.
- (4) An Act or a provision of an Act is in operation as from the beginning of the day on which it comes into operation.

26. Evidence of commencement of Act

A copy of an Act printed by the Government Printer which includes a date purporting to be the date on which the Act or any provision of the Act came or will come into operation is evidence that the Act or provision came or will come into operation on that date.

Part V – Repeal, amendment and expiry of Acts

27. Amending Act construed with amended Act

An Act amending any other Act shall be read as one with the other Act.

28. Repealed Act not revived

The repeal of an Act which repealed the whole or part of any other Act does not revive the other Act or that part.

29. Repeal of Act includes amending Acts and statutory instruments

- (1) Where a particular Act is repealed
  - (a) any other Act then having effect only as an Act to amend the particular Act is also repealed; and
  - (b) any other Act then having effect in part as an Act to amend the particular Act is repealed to the extent that it has that effect.
- (2) Where an Act is repealed after the commencement of this Act, any statutory instrument made under the Act is repealed unless and to the extent that the statutory instrument is saved in the repealing Act.
- (3) For the purposes of this section an Act or a section or provision of an Act shall be treated as having effect to amend a particular Act if it is expressed to do so.

30. Repeal and re-enactment

- (1) Where an Act repeals a previous written law and substitutes provisions for the written law repealed, the repealed written law remains in force until the substituted provisions come into force.
- (2) Where an Act repeals and re enacts with or without modification, any provisions of a previous written law then, unless the contrary intention appears,
  - (a) any reference, whether express or implied, in any other written law to the provision so repealed shall be construed as a reference to the provision re enacted;
  - (b) notwithstanding section 29\(2\), in so far as any statutory instrument made or other thing done under the written law so repealed, or having effect as if so made or done, could have been made or done under the provisions re enacted, it has effect as if made or done under that provision.

31. Effect of repeal of Act

- (1) The repeal of an Act does not
  - (a) affect the previous operation of the Act or anything duly done or suffered under it;
  - (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the Act;
  - (c) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence against the Act; or
  - (d) affect any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any right, privilege, obligation or liability referred to in paragraph (b), or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in paragraph (c),and the investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the Act had not been repealed.
- (2) Where an Act repeals part only of any other Act, subsection (1) applies in relation to the part as it would apply if the other Act were wholly repealed.

32. Expiry, etc., of Act

- (1) Where an Act or a provision of an Act expires, lapses or ceases to have effect otherwise than on repeal, sections 29 and 31 apply in relation to the Act, the provision or a statutory instrument made under the Act as they apply to an Act, provision of an Act, or a statutory instrument made under an Act that is repealed.
- (2) Where an Act is expressed to expire, lapse or cease to have effect on a particular day, it expires, lapses or ceases to have effect at the beginning of the day following the particular day.

Part VI – Powers and duties

33. Power to be exercised from time to time

A power conferred or a duty imposed by an Act may be exercised or performed from time to time as the occasion arises and as often as is necessary to correct any error or omission in any previous exercise or performance of the power or duty, notwithstanding that the power or duty is not in general capable of being exercised from time to time.

34. Extent of powers conferred by Act

Where an Act confers a power to do any act or thing, all powers reasonably necessary to enable the act or thing to be done are also conferred by the Act.

35. Construction of powers conferred by Act

- (1) A power conferred by an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act
  - (a) to provide for, regulate or otherwise control any act or thing, includes a power to do so by the grant of a licence;
  - (b) to grant a licence or an exemption or to give an approval or a direction, includes a power to amend the licence, exemption, approval or direction;
  - (c) to grant a licence or an exemption or to give an approval, includes a power to do so subject to conditions not inconsistent with the Act;
  - (d) to give directions with respect to any matter or thing, includes a power to prohibit that matter or thing;
  - (e) to make an appointment, includes a power to revoke the appointment; and
  - (f) to approve any person, matter or thing, includes a power to withdraw that approval.
- (2) Where paragraph (a) of subsection (1) applies in the case of a power conferred by an Act, paragraphs (b) and (c) of that subsection also apply.
- (3) In this section "licence" includes authorization, certificate or permit.

36. Majority may act

Where any act or thing may or is required to be done under an Act by more than two persons, a majority of them may do it.

37. Reference to holder of office

A reference in an Act to the holder of an office by the term designating his office is a reference to the person from time to time holding, acting in or discharging the functions of the office.

38. Appointment by name or office

- (1) A power under an Act to appoint a person to hold or act in an office may be exercised
  - (a) by appointing a person by name; or
  - (b) by appointing the holder of an office by the term designating his office.
- (2) An appointment made as provided in subsection (1)(b) operates to appoint the person who, from time to time, holds, acts in or discharges the functions of the office designated.
- (3) Where the holder of an office is on leave of absence pending the relinquishment of the office, another person may be appointed to, and may exercise and perform the functions of, the office.

39. Change of title of public officer

- (1) Where the title of a public office or officer is changed, the President may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that, for the purposes of all written laws, the title of the office or officer is replaced by the new title specified in the notice.

- (2) Where a notice is published under subsection (1), any written law or document containing a reference, whether express or implied, to the title which is changed is deemed, unless the context otherwise requires, to have been amended by substituting for that reference a reference to the new title.

40. Power to relate back appointments

Any appointment made under an Act may be declared to have effect as from the date upon which the person appointed in fact began to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his appointment, not being a date earlier than the commencement of the Act under which the appointment is made.

41. Exercise of power between passing and commencement of Act

Where an Act or a provision of an Act which is not to come into operation immediately on its publication in the Gazette confers power

- (a) to make appointments;
- (b) to make a statutory instrument;
- (c) to establish offices;
- (d) to prescribe fees or forms;
- (e) to give directions; or
- (f) to do any other thing for the purposes of the Act,

the power may be exercised at any time after the passing of the Act, but any such statutory instrument shall not come into operation and no such appointment shall take effect until the Act or the provision comes into operation.

42. Signification of the exercise or performance of functions

- (1) The fact of the exercise or performance by the President of a function conferred or imposed on him by an Act may be signified under the hand of a Minister, a Principal Secretary in the President's office or the Attorney General.
- (2) The fact of the exercise or performance by a Minister of a function conferred or imposed on him by an Act may be signified under the hand of a Principal Secretary.
- (3) The reference in this section to a function conferred or imposed on an authority by an Act includes a reference to a function delegated under any Act to the authority.

Part VII – Statutory bodies

43. Bodies corporate

- (1) A body corporate constituted by an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act
  - (a) shall have a seal;
  - (b) may sue and be sued in its corporate name;
  - (c) may acquire, hold and dispose of movable and immovable property; and
  - (d) may do all other things necessary for or incidental to the purposes for which it is constituted.
- (2) The design of the seal of a body corporate constituted by an Act shall be as determined by the body corporate.

- (3) The seal of a body corporate constituted by an Act shall be kept in such custody as the body corporate directs and shall not be used except as authorised by the body corporate.
- (4) All Courts, Judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal of a body corporate constituted by an Act affixed to a document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.
- (5) A provision of an Act requiring a document to be signed is complied with by a body corporate constituted by an Act if the document is sealed by the body corporate.

44. Acts and proceedings of statutory body

An act or decision of a body, whether corporate or unincorporate, constituted or established by an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act is not invalid by reason only

- (a) of a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the body;
- (b) of a defect or irregularity in connection with the appointment or election of one, or more than one, member of the body; or
- (c) of an irregularity in the convening of a meeting of the body.

45. Alternate member of body, etc.

- (1) The power under an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act to appoint a member of a body, whether corporate or unincorporate includes a power
  - (a) to appoint an alternate for the member; and
  - (b) to appoint a person to act for the member during any period when the member is unable to exercise and perform his function as a member,and the alternate or person so acting shall be treated as a member of the body when, pursuant to his appointment, he attends at meetings of the body.

Part VIII – General provisions regarding legal proceedings and penalties

47. Evidence of signature of authority

Where the consent of an authority is necessary before any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, are commenced, a document or instrument giving the consent and purporting to be signed by the authority is evidence that the consent has been given, without proof that the signature to the document or instrument is that of the authority.

48. Evidence

Where an Act provides that a document or instrument is evidence of a fact without anything in the context to indicate that the document or instrument is conclusive evidence then, in any legal proceedings the document or instrument is admissible in evidence and the fact shall be deemed to be established in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

49. Ex-officio proceedings not to abate

Civil proceedings taken by or against a person in virtue of his office are not discontinued or abated by his death, resignation, absence or removal from office, but may be carried on by or against the person for the time being holding, acting in or discharging the functions of the office.

50. Power to determine includes authority to administer oath

Any court, Judge or person authorised by law or by the consent of the parties to hear and determine any matter or thing has authority to administer an oath to all witnesses legally called before the court or person.

51. Imposition of penalty no bar to civil action

The imposition of a penalty or fine by or under the authority of an Act does not relieve a person from liability to answer for damages to a person injured.

52. Person not to be twice criminally responsible for same offence

A person cannot be twice criminally responsible either under the provisions of the Penal Code or under the provisions of any other law for the same act or omission, except in the case where the act or omission is such that by means thereof he causes the death of another person, in which case he may be convicted of the offence of which he is guilty by reason of causing such death, notwithstanding that he has already been convicted of some other offence constituted by the act or omission.

53. Penalties are maximum penalties

Where a penalty is prescribed in an Act for an offence, the offence is punishable by a penalty not exceeding the penalty prescribed.

54. Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) Where at any time a body corporate commits an offence under an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act with the consent or connivance of, or because of neglect by, any individual, the individual commits the same offence if at that time
  - (a) he is a director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body corporate;
  - (b) he is purporting to act as such an officer; or
  - (c) the body corporate is managed by its members of whom he is one.
- (2) Where a body corporate commits an offence under an Act enacted after the commencement of this Act for which the only penalty prescribed is a term of imprisonment, the body corporate is punishable on conviction by a fine which
  - (a) if the penalty so prescribed is a term of six months or under, shall not exceed five thousand rupees;
  - (b) if the penalty so prescribed is over a term of six months but not over a term of two years, shall not exceed ten thousand rupees; and

- (c) if the penalty so prescribed is over a term of two years, shall not exceed twenty thousand rupees.

55. Service of documents and notices

- (1) A document or notice required or permitted to be served on, or given to, a person under or for the purposes of an Act, may be served or given

- (2) A statutory instrument is in operation as from the beginning of the day on which it comes into operation.

64. Statutory instruments to be laid before National Assembly

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a statutory instrument made under an Act after the commencement of this Act shall be laid before the People's Assembly.
- (2) If the People's Assembly passes a resolution, within three months after a statutory instrument is laid before it, to the effect that the statutory instrument is annulled, the statutory instrument shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the statutory instrument.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a statutory instrument a draft of which is laid before, and approved by resolution by, the People's Assembly before the making of the statutory instrument

65. Application of certain provisions to statutory instruments

- (1) Sections 6, 7 and 8, Part III (except section 9), sections 26 to 30, section 32, Part VI, section 48, sections 51 to 55 and Part IX apply to a statutory instrument made under an Act to the extent that they apply to the Act.
- (2) Except where the context otherwise requires, words and expressions used in a statutory instrument have the same meaning as they have in the Act under which the statutory instrument is made.
- (3) A reference in a statutory instrument to "the Act" is a reference to the Act under which the statutory instrument is made.
- (4) For the purposes of the application (referred to in subsection (1)) of section 14, the reference in that section to any provision of an Act shall be read and construed as a reference to the appropriate provision of the statutory instrument.

66. Citation of statutory instrument

- (1) A statutory instrument may be cited
  - (a) by its title; or
  - (b) by reference to the year in which it was made and the number of the notice in which it was published in the Gazette.
- (2) A reference in any statutory instrument to the Constitution, an Act, any statutory instrument or any provision thereof is a reference to the Constitution, the Act, the statutory instrument or the provision as from time to time amended.

67. General provisions relating to statutory instruments

- (1) A statutory instrument which purports to be made in exercise of a power shall be treated as having been made in exercise also of all other powers which would enable the statutory instrument to be made.
- (2) A statutory instrument may be amended, in the same manner as it was made, by the authority who made it or by any other authority lawfully substituted for that authority.
- (3) Where an Act confers power on an authority to make a statutory instrument for any general purpose and for any special purposes, the enumeration of the special purposes does not derogate from the generality of the powers conferred with reference to the general purpose.
- (4) There is a rebuttable presumption that all conditions and preliminary steps precedent to the making of any statutory instrument have been complied with and performed.
- (5) No statutory instrument shall be inconsistent with the provisions of any Act.
- (6) A statutory instrument has the same force and effect and is binding and is construed for all purposes as if it had been contained in the Act under which it was made.
- (7) An act is deemed to be done under an Act, or by virtue of the powers conferred by an Act or in pursuance or execution of the provisions of or under the authority of an Act, if it is done under or by virtue of or in pursuance or execution of or under the authority of a statutory instrument made under any power contained in that Act.
- (8) A statutory instrument extends to the whole of Seychelles in its application unless the contrary intention appears.
- (9) Any reference to a written law in any other written law includes a reference to any statutory instrument made under the written law to which reference is made.

68. Power to make regulations

- (1) Statutory instruments made under an Act may
  - (a) constitute offences; and
  - (b) provide, in respect of any such offence, for the imposition by way of penalty of a fine not exceeding twenty thousand rupees or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.
- (2) The power under an Act to make statutory instruments may be exercised
  - (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all of those cases subject to specified exceptions or in relation to any specified case or class of case; and
  - (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised,
    - (i) the same provision for all the cases, a different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provisions for the same case or classes of cases for different purposes of the Act; or
    - (ii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition.

69. Fees

- (1) The power under an Act to make statutory instruments providing for fees or charges may be exercised by making provision
  - (a) for specific fees or charges;
  - (b) for maximum or minimum fees or charges;

- (c) for maximum and minimum fees or charges;
  - (d) for ad valorem fees or charges;
  - (e) for the payment of fees or charges either generally or under specified conditions or in specified circumstances;
  - (f) for the reduction, waiver or refund, in whole or in part, of the fees or charges, either upon the happening of an event or in the discretion of a specified authority; or
  - (g) for more than one of the foregoing.
- (2) A reduction, waiver or refund pursuant to subsection (1)(f) may be expressed to apply or be applicable either generally or specifically
- (a) in respect of certain matters or transactions or classes of matters or transactions;
  - (b) in respect of certain documents or classes of documents;
  - (c) when an event happens or ceases to happen;
  - (d) in respect of certain persons or classes of persons; or
  - (e) in respect of any continuation of such matters, transactions, documents or events.

70. Effect of repeal, etc., of statutory instrument

- (1) The repeal of a statutory instrument does not
- (a) affect the previous operation of the statutory instrument or anything duly done or suffered under the statutory instrument;
  - (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the statutory instrument;
  - (c) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence against the statutory instrument; or
  - (d) affect any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any right, privilege, obligation or liability referred to in paragraph (b), or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in paragraph (c),
- and the investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repeal had not occurred.
- (2) Where part only of a statutory instrument is repealed, subsection (1) applies in relation to the part as it would apply if the statutory instrument was wholly repealed.
