PART II - ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE INSTITUTE

3. There is hereby established a Creole Institute of Seychelles to be known as the “Lenstiti Kreol” which shall be a body corporate.

4. The objective of the Institute shall be to ensure the linguistic and cultural development of the Creole language and, inter alia, to focus on —

(a) providing means of development for the Seychellois Creole language and literature;

(b) promoting the Institute and its services, locally and abroad; and

(c) developing a professional research based workforce for the Institute.

5. (1) The functions of the Institute shall be to —

(a) establish the Institute as the authority on all issues pertaining to the use of Seychellois Creole language, its orthography, vocabulary and grammar;

(b) promote the Seychellois Creole language and culture, locally and internationally, through seminars, exhibitions, publications or audiovisual productions;

(c) promote specifications of the Creole language and culture of other countries and the Creolophone regions in order to contribute in the nurturing of knowledge about the Creole language and culture in its global context and thus nurture knowledge of Seychellois Creole culture with all connections and values that is being shared in the Creole world;

(d) assist local authors writing in Seychellois Creole language, by providing technical and financial assistance, such as, editing, publishing and distribution of their work, to produce and publish it in the Creole language;

(e) provide active support to the teaching and learning of Seychellois Creole language by initiating and contributing to research projects on specific issues pertaining to the language, in consultation and collaboration with the Ministry of Education;

(f) make provisions for employees and employers, including foreign individuals for the learning of Seychellois Creole language, in collaboration with the Ministry of Education;
(g) ensure the development of Seychellois Creole literature, through the preservation and diffusion of traditional and literary heritage, leading to the enhancement of a modern literary culture;

(h) undertake research on Seychellois Creole language locally, and Creole languages in general internationally, in collaboration with other countries and Creolophone regions;

(i) establish a close and permanent contact with the institutions and organisations that display interest for research on Creole languages and cultures;

(j) develop the Institute as a centre for documentation on Creole languages and cultures, with emphasis on the Seychellois Creole language and culture, by the setting up of a database, including electronic database, to allow and provide for virtual and on site consultation;

(k) provide support and encourage Seychellois and foreign researchers to undertake research projects on issues pertaining to Creole;

(l) disseminate results of researches on Creole through seminars, meetings, publications, television programmes and films;

(m) prepare and publish information, every three months on developments and works of the Institute in other countries and Creolophone regions;

(n) encourage and support all manifestations, of which their roles are to promote, valorise and diffuse Creole languages, cultures and creativity;

(o) establish close relations with the media, so that they play an important role in diffusing standard Seychellois Creole to promote and develop the Seychellois Creole language and culture;

(p) encourage young researchers and pedagogues on the importance of the linguistic and cultural heritage of their territory and encourage them to work together to further develop the Seychellois Creole language and culture; and

(q) perform such other functions as may be prescribed by Regulations.

(2) The Institute shall, develop itself and function as the secretariat of the International Creole Institute, with a view to valorise and promote Creole languages and cultures and work for its recognition as a group of languages with a common history, linguistic development path, and the common purpose of ensuring the survival and development of each Creole and Creolophone community with respect to their language and culture.

6.(1) The Institute shall have the powers necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions and, in particular, the Institute may—
