 - (i) facilitate the mutual recognition of the qualifications and standards regarding the practice of construction-related services with other countries;
 - (j) advise the Minister on proposed amendments to this Act and carry out such other functions as the Minister may direct; and
 - (k) generally undertake all acts, matters and things that are necessary to be carried out under this Act and ensure the efficiency of the Council.
- (2) The Seychelles Qualification Authority may—
- (a) advise the Council regarding qualifications of an applicant;
 - (b) assist the Council with establishing standards for the different applicants; and
 - (c) assist the Council in devising examinations for registration and continuing education programmes for applicants.

10. Interim Council

- (1) Pending the election of the first Council under this Act, the duties and functions of the Council shall be carried out by an Interim Council appointed by the Minister in accordance with the Act.
- (2) The Interim Council shall comprise—
 - (a) one representative of the Planning Authority;
 - (b) six persons who are eligible to be registered as professional members.
- (3) The tenure of the members of the Interim Council shall end within 18 months from the date of appointment.
- (4) The members of the Interim Council constituted under this section shall vacate office in favour of the Council elected or appointed under section 4 on the last day of the month in which the election of the members of the Council is held.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a member of the Interim Council from being elected or appointed under section 4.

11. Committees of the Council

The Council may—

- (a) appoint committees comprising members of the Council and construction professionals for the purpose of carrying out the functions of the Council;
- (b) delegate to the committees any functions as it considers necessary.

Part 3 – Registration and classification of construction professionals

12. Register of construction professionals

- (1) The Registrar shall establish and keep a register, to be known as the “Construction Professionals Register”, which shall contain the following particulars of each person registered under this Act—
 - (a) the name of the person;
 - (b) address and contact information of the person;
 - (c) the date of registration in the register;
 - (d) duration of registration;
 - (e) the registration number;
 - (f) the construction service that the person can provide;
 - (g) the class, category or grade of the person in the construction service;
 - (h) the qualifications of the person;
 - (i) in the case of a corporate member—
 - (i) the name of the director, manager or partners of the corporate member; and
 - (ii) the name of the professional member employed by the corporate member;
 - (j) such other particulars as the Council may consider necessary.
- (2) The register shall be in the custody and under the control of the Registrar and shall be kept in any form at the office of the Council or any other place that the Council may direct.
- (3) The Registrar shall keep a separate register of professional members who are deemed by the Council to be a specialist in any particular construction-related discipline and the details of the specialty shall be recorded in the register.
- (4) The registers shall be open to inspection by any member of the public at the office of the Registrar during working hours.

13. Application for registration

- (1) A person wishing to be registered in the register shall make an application for registration to the Council in such manner or form as may be prescribed.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) A person making an application under subsection (1) shall—
 - (a) agree to have the Council conduct a background check on the person's qualifications and professional experience;
 - (b) agree to attend an interview with the Council to determine the competence of the person, if necessary;
 - (c) comply with the requirements under the immigration laws if the person is not a citizen of Seychelles; and
 - (d) provide any other information or comply with any direction that the Council may prescribe.

14. Categories of construction professionals

- (1) A person may be registered as a construction professional providing construction services as listed in the Schedule.
- (2) The Minister may, in consultation with the Council, by statutory instrument add or remove a construction-related discipline set out in the Schedule.

15. Classification of construction professionals

A person may be registered in the register under the following classes of construction professionals—

- (a) a professional member;
- (b) a graduate member;
- (c) a corporate member; or
- (d) any other class as determined by the Minister, in consultation with the Council, by Order published in the Gazette.

16. Registration as a professional member

- (1) A person shall be eligible for registration as a professional member if that person—
 - (a) has a postgraduate degree from a recognized university in the construction-related discipline and at least 2 years' proven work experience in a specified construction service;
 - (b) has an undergraduate degree from a recognized university in the construction-related discipline and at least 4 years proven relevant work experience in a specified construction service; or
 - (c) passed an examination set by the Council or recognized by the Council as an equivalent examination set by another authority and the person has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Council that the person is proficient in a specified construction service and has at least 10 years working experience in the specified construction service.
- (2) A person registered as a professional member is deemed to be an expert in the specified construction-related discipline but the work that the professional member can undertake may be limited by the grade of construction service that the person can provide, or such other conditions imposed by the Council.
- (3) The Council may recognize as a specialty in a specified construction-related discipline any qualifications or distinction awarded to a person registered as a professional member.

17. Registration as a graduate member

- (1) A person shall be eligible for registration as a graduate member if that person—
 - (a) is the holder of a degree from a recognized university in a construction-related discipline;
 - (b) does not have the practical experience that may qualify the person to be registered as a professional member; and
 - (c) has complied with any requirement as may be specified by the Council.
- (2) A person registered under this section shall be entitled to practice in a specified construction service under the employment, supervision and control of a registered professional member, the Government or a public body until the graduate member is registered a professional member.

- (3) A graduate member may be eligible to register as a professional member if that member has—
 - (a) completed a postgraduate degree from a recognised University and a period of 2 years under the employment, supervision and control of a professional member, the Government or a public body, but the Council may extend the period of supervision; or
 - (b) completed an undergraduate degree from a recognised University and a period of 4 years in the employment of a corporate member, a professional member or the Government or a public body, or engaged under the supervision and control of a professional member but the Council may, subject to regulations, extend the period of supervision.

18. Registration as a corporate member

- (1) No firm of construction professionals shall provide construction services in Seychelles unless the firm of construction professionals is registered as a corporate member and employs a professional member.
- (2) A firm of construction professionals is eligible for registration as a corporate member if at least 1 of the directors, managers, partners, employees or persons in control of the firm of construction professionals is registered as a professional member.
- (3) A firm of construction professionals shall only provide construction services that any professional member specified in subsection (2) is authorized to provide pursuant to this Act.
- (4) The Registrar shall register the name of any professional member specified in subsection (2) next to the name of the corporate member and the professional member shall acknowledge in writing the liabilities that may be imposed on that professional member under section 36\(3\) or 38\(4\) if the firm of construction professionals is found to have committed a professional misconduct.
- (5) Where a professional member specified in subsection (4) is no longer employed by the corporate member, the professional member shall immediately request that the Registrar removes the name of the professional member that was inserted next to the name of the corporate member in the register.

19. Registration of persons who lack qualifications as a professional member

- (1) Notwithstanding any provision under this Act, any person who does not possess the qualifications required under section 16, but who on an application made to the Council within 1 year of the commencement of this Act, satisfies the Council that—
 - (a) the person has had, before the commencement of this Act, at least 10 years' experience in the practice of construction services; and
 - (b) the person is a fit and proper person to be registered as a professional member;may be registered as a professional member.
- (2) In determining whether a person satisfies the requirements in subsection (1), the Council may conduct an investigation relating to the experience of that person as a construction professional, as it considers necessary and may require that person to undergo an examination.

20. Acknowledgment of receipt of an application

- (1) The Council shall acknowledge the receipt of an application for registration as a construction professional as soon as possible and in any case not later than 30 working days from the date of the receipt of the application and if the applicant does not submit all the documentation, the Council shall inform the applicant accordingly.
- (2) The Council shall give its reasoned decision in relation to an application for registration as a construction professional within 90 working days after the date on which the complete application is received, but the Council may extend this period by 30 working days, provided that the applicant is notified prior to the expiration of the original period established in this subsection.

- (3) In the event that the Council does not give its decision within the period established in subsection (2), this shall not imply tacit approval of the application.
- (4) The acknowledgement referred to in subsection (1) shall specify—
 - (a) the time period within which the application shall be processed;
 - (b) the available means of redress for an applicant whose application was rejected; and
 - (c) a statement that in the absence of a response within the specified time period, the approval shall not be deemed to have been granted.

21. Provisional registration as a graduate member

- (1) Notwithstanding section 20, the Council may on the application of a Seychellois, who is enrolled in the final year of his or her studies at a recognised institution but who has not obtained an academic degree or a diploma (or equivalent) from that recognized institution, cause the Seychellois to be registered in a register to be known as the provisional registration register for a period not exceeding 6 months.
- (2) Sections 25 and 26 shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of a registration under this section.

22. Additional qualifications

Every person registered under this Act who, subsequent to that person's registration, obtains any qualification or other designation relevant to that person's practice as a registered construction professional, shall be entitled, on payment of the prescribed fee, to have such qualification or other designation inserted in the register in substitution for or in addition to those previously entered.

23. Correction of register

It shall be the duty of the Registrar to—

- (a) remove from the register any entry which the Council directs the Registrar to remove;
- (b) restore to the register any entry which the Council directs the Registrar to restore;
- (c) correct any entry, omission, misdescription or error in the register which the Council directs the Registrar to correct;
- (d) remove from the register, with the approval of the Council, the name of any person who has died or who has for a period of at least one year ceased to be resident in Seychelles or who, in accordance with this Act, ceases to be a registered member.

24. Redress for reject applicants

An applicant aggrieved by the refusal of the Council to register the applicant as a construction professional may within 3 months of such refusal, appeal to the Appeals Board.

25. Certificate of registration

- (1) Where the requirements for registration have been satisfied, the Council shall on receipt of the prescribed fee from the applicant, issue to the applicant a certificate of registration.
- (2) A certificate of registration is valid for 12 months and shall be in such form as the Council may determine.
- (3) A certificate of registration may be subject to such conditions as the Council may determine.

- (4) A certified copy of a certificate of registration made by the Registrar shall be prima facie evidence that the person, to whom the certificate relates, is a registered construction professional.
- (5) A letter signed by the Registrar stating that a person is not a registered construction professional, shall be prima facie evidence of that fact.
- (6) The holder of a certificate of registration shall display it in a prominent position at the holder's office.
- (7) Where a certificate of registration has been lost, destroyed or damaged, it may be replaced by the Council by the issue of a copy thereof on the application of the holder thereof, and on the payment of the prescribed fee.
- (8) Where the Council refuses an application for registration as a registered construction professional, the Council shall provide reasons for such refusal.

26. Certificate of registration and valid licence as prerequisite to practice

- (1) Save where this Act otherwise provides, a person shall not engage in any construction services in Seychelles unless that person possesses both a certificate of registration and a licence at the date of commencing construction services.
- (2) A person who engages in any construction services in contravention of subsection (1) commits an offence.
- (3) A licence shall be obtained from the Licensing Authority in accordance with the Licences Act or any other written law.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a registered professional member or graduate member who—
 - (a) is a public officer; or
 - (b) is employed by a corporate member;is not required to obtain a licence to engage in construction services provided by the Government or corporate member, as the case may be.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt—
 - (a) a corporate member shall obtain a licence to engage in construction services;
 - (b) a registered construction professional, employed under a contract of employment by a registered professional member who owns a business other than a firm of construction professionals, is not required to obtain a licence.
- (6) For the purposes of enforcing compliance under this Act, the Council and the Licensing Authority shall share information on all construction professionals who have obtained a licence or a certificate of registration in accordance with this Act.

Part 4 – Rights and privileges of construction professionals

27. Illegal practice

- (1) Subject to this Act, a person shall not, in Seychelles,—
 - (a) draw or prepare any architectural plan, drawing, tracing, design, specification or other document intended to govern the construction, enlargement or alteration of any building or part of a building;
 - (b) engage in any of the prescribed branches of engineering work, or draw or prepare any plan, sketch, drawing, design, specification or other document relating to any of the prescribed branches of engineering work; or

- (c) supply or provide prescribed survey services, unless the person has a certificate of registration.
- (2) Any document that is signed in contravention of subsection (2) shall be invalid.
- (3) Subject to this Act, no person shall—
 - (a) use or cause or permit to be used any written words, titles or initials or any abbreviation thereof, such as “engineer”, “Er.”, “Engr.”, “architect”, or “surveyor”, which are intended to cause or may reasonably cause any person to believe that the person using them is authorized to supply construction services in Seychelles; or
 - (b) advertise or conduct himself or herself in any way or by any means as a person authorized to supply construction services in Seychelles, unless at the time of so doing the person is a professional member.
- (4) A graduate member may use the words “graduate engineer”, “graduate architect”, “graduate surveyor” or similar title or description that does not mislead any person into believing that the graduate member is a professional member.
- (5) A person who contravenes this section shall be liable on conviction to a fine of level 1 on the standard scale and, if the person is a repeat offender, to a fine of level 2 on the standard scale or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

28. Employment of unregistered construction professionals

- (1) Subject to this Act, a person shall not employ as a construction professional—
 - (a) in the case of a corporate member or a professional member, a construction professional who does not possess a certificate of registration;
 - (b) in the case of any other person, a construction professional who does not possess both a certificate of registration and a valid licence.
- (2) A person who contravenes this section shall be liable on conviction to a fine of level 2 on the standard scale unless the person can prove that he or she had reasonable cause to believe that the person employed as a construction professional was compliant with section 26.

29. Entitlement to recover fees

- (1) Notwithstanding any other law, a construction professional who breaches section 26 is not entitled to recover in any proceedings any fee, charge, gratuity, remuneration or other reward under an agreement for construction services.
- (2) A person, who has made any payment to a construction professional who was not compliant with section 26 at the time of carrying out construction services, may recover the payment in a court of competent jurisdiction if the person did not know or have reason to believe, when making payment, that the construction professional breached section 26.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prevent any a person from taking action mentioned in that subsection in respect of anything lawfully done while such person was compliant with section 26.

30. Minor construction services

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit or prevent any person not registered under this Act from carrying out work in respect of the construction of or repairs to any building or part thereof in any case which plans are not required by any written law to be submitted to the Planning Authority.

Part 5 – Discipline

31. Professional misconduct

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, “professional misconduct” means, in relation to a construction professional,—
 - (a) negligence;
 - (b) failure to make reasonable provisions for the safeguarding of life, health or property of a person who may be affected by the construction service or any work for which the construction professional is responsible;
 - (c) failure to correct or report a situation that the construction professional believes may endanger the safety or welfare of the public;
 - (d) failure to make responsible provision for complying with applicable laws, standards and codes in connection with construction services or any work being undertaken by or under the construction professional;
 - (e) undertaking construction services or any work which the construction professional is not competent to perform by virtue of the construction professional's training or expertise;
 - (f) conduct or an act relevant to the practice of construction professionals which, having regard to the circumstances, would reasonably be regarded by the profession as disgraceful, dishonourable or unprofessional;
 - (g) failure to abide by the terms or conditions of the certificate of registration issued to the construction professional;
 - (h) permitting, counselling or assisting a person who is not registered under this Act to engage in the practice of construction services except as provided for in this Act;
 - (i) procuring registration by a statement which is false in a material particular;
 - (j) the repeated performance of defective construction services to which adequate checks have not been applied;
 - (k) making any report in connection with the performance of construction services containing any information which the construction professional knows to be erroneous in any material particular; or
 - (l) unjustified refusal to remunerate the services of any person contracted by the construction professional to carry out work on that professional member's behalf;
 - (m) failure to maintain full professional indemnity insurance as specified in section 32 or to provide information in relation to the professional indemnity insurance as specified under section 33.
- (2) In this section, “negligence” means an act or omission in the carrying out of construction services which constitutes a failure to maintain the standards which a reasonable and prudent construction professional would maintain in the circumstances.

32. Professional indemnity insurance

- (1) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette direct that a class, category or grade of registered construction professional shall maintain full professional indemnity insurance at all times during which the construction professional holds a licence to practise.

- (2) The professional indemnity insurance policy shall cover—
 - (a) loss or damage to the construction professional's equipment employed in the provision of the construction services;
 - (b) civil liability for damage caused to third parties arising out the provision of the construction services;
 - (c) accidental death, dismemberment or permanent disability resulting from bodily injury incurred in connection with the provision of the construction services; and
 - (d) any other matter specified in the Order under subsection (1).
- (3) The Council, on the approval of the Minister responsible for finance, may establish, administer, maintain or operate a professional insurance liability scheme for construction professionals for the purpose of subsection (2) and in respect of such scheme may—
 - (a) determine classes of membership for insurance;

 - (d) provide for payment of insurance fees by instalment or in advance; and
 - (e) provide for specific types or values of transaction which require additional insurance fees or contributions to be paid.

33. Proof of insurance

The Council may at any time require a registered construction professional who holds a licence to practise to provide proof of—

- (a) the professional indemnity insurance;
- (b) the current status of the insurance policy including, proof of regular and up to date payment of premiums in respect of the insurance policy.

34. Complaints of professional misconduct

- (1) A complaint that a construction professional has committed professional misconduct may be made to the Council by any person in such form as the Council may determine.
- (2) If the Council is of the opinion that any complaint so made might, if established, call for the exercise of any of a disciplinary powers conferred by section 36, the Council shall appoint a disciplinary committee and shall refer the complaint to it.

35. Disciplinary Committee

- (1) A Disciplinary Committee shall comprise 3 or more professional members who shall be appointed by the Council.
- (2) In the conduct of the hearing of any complaint, the Disciplinary Committee shall commence a formal inquiry into any complaint and may require any person—
 - (a) to attend at a specified time and place and give evidence before the Disciplinary Committee; and
 - (b) to produce all books, documents and papers in the custody of such person or under the person's control which may be related to or be connected with the subject-matter of the formal inquiry.

- (3) The Disciplinary Committee—
 - (a) shall not be bound by the Evidence Act, Cap. 74, or by any other written law relating to evidence;
 - (b) may administer an oath or affirmation to any person giving evidence before it; and
 - (c) may regulate its own procedure for a formal inquiry.
- (4) On an application made by the Disciplinary Committee to the Registrar of the Supreme, the Registrar of the Supreme Court may issue a summons for a person to appear before the Disciplinary Committee to give evidence where the person has failed to appear before the Disciplinary Committee on a previous occasion after having been given notice to do so.
- (5) A Disciplinary Committee shall complete its inquiry not later than 6 months from the date of its appointment, unless the Council, on application of the Disciplinary Committee, allows otherwise.
- (6) The decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be by a majority of votes and shall be submitted in writing to the Council.

36. Disciplinary Powers of the Council

- (1) On the hearing of a complaint, the Disciplinary Committee shall make its recommendations to the Council and the Council may either dismiss the complaint or make such order of a disciplinary nature as it thinks fit, and such order may, in particular, provide for any of the following matters in relation to the person complained against, that is to say—
 - (a) removal of the construction professional's name from the register;
 - (b) suspension of the construction professional's registration for a period not exceeding one year;
 - (c) payment, by the construction professional, of a penalty to the council not exceeding SCR 100,000;
 - (d) payment, by the construction professional, of costs or of such sum as the Council may consider to be reasonable contribution towards the costs incurred in connection with the hearing.
- (2) Any payment ordered to be made by any person under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) may be enforced by the Council by ordering the construction professional's registration to be suspended until payment is made.
- (3) Notwithstanding any written law, where an order under subsection (1)(a) or (b) is made against a corporate member, the Disciplinary Committee shall order that—
 - (a) the name of the professional member identified under section 18 be removed from the register;
 - (b) the professional member identified under section 18 be suspended.

37. Order of the Council

- (1) Every order made by the Council under section 36 shall be prefaced by a statement of the Disciplinary Committee's findings on the facts of the case and shall be signed by the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee.
- (2) Every such order shall be filed with the Registrar and shall take effect where—
 - (a) no appeal under section 43 is brought against the order within the time limited for the appeal;

- (b) an appeal is brought and is withdrawn or struck out, on the withdrawal or striking out of the appeal;
 - (c) an appeal is brought and is not withdrawn or struck out, if and when the appeal is dismissed and not otherwise.
- (3) The Registrar shall cause a note of the effect of every order filed with the Registrar pursuant to subsection (2) to be entered in the register against the name of the person to whom the order relates and, except in the case of an order making provision only for costs, shall forthwith on the taking effect of the order cause a notice stating the effect of the order to be published in the Gazette.

38. Power to order immediate suspension

- (1) Notwithstanding section 37\(2\), the Council may make an order for removal or an order for suspension in respect of any construction profession if the Council is satisfied that to do so is necessary for the protection of members of the public or would be in the best interest of the construction professional.
- (2) Where an order under subsection (1) is made in respect of a construction professional, the construction professional's registration shall be suspended or removed forthwith when the order is made.
- (3) In this section "order for removal" means an order under section 36\(1\)\(a\) for the removal of a construction professional's name from the register and "order for suspension" means an order under that section 36\(1\)\(b\) for the suspension of a person's registration in the register.
- (4) Notwithstanding any written law, where an order for removal or an order for suspension is made against a corporate member, the professional member identified under section 18 shall be suspended or the name of that professional member shall be removed from the register, as the case maybe.

39. Removal of name from register

- (1) The Registrar shall remove particulars of a construction professional from the register on the—
 - (a) application of the construction professional; or
 - (b) taking effect of an order of the Council under section 38\(2\) or (4), in relation to that construction professional:

Provided that where a complaint has been made against any construction professional under section 34\(1\) the person's name shall not be removed under paragraph (b) of this subsection until the complaint, or any appeal in relation thereto, has been finally disposed of under this Act.

- (2) Where the name of any construction professional has been removed from the register or the construction professional's registration has been suspended, any certificate of registration or licence issued to the construction professional shall cease to have effect for as long as that construction professional's name remains off the register or, as the case may be, suspension continues in force.
- (3) The Registrar shall cause the name of any construction professional whose name has been removed from the register or who has been suspended to be published in the Gazette.
- (4) Where the name of any construction professional has been removed from the register, the Council shall, in writing, require that construction professional to return to the Registrar any certificate of registration issued to the person.
- (5) Any person who fails without reasonable excuse to return the certificate of registration issued to the person, as required by subsection (4), commits an offence and is liable to pay to the Council a fine of SCR 1,000 and to a further fine of SCR 50 for each day during which the offence continues.

40. Restoration of name to the register

- (1) The Council may at any time, on application being made by a construction professional whose name has been removed from the register or whose registration has been suspended, determine if the Council thinks fit, that such person's name shall be restored to the register or, as the case may be, that the person's suspension shall cease with effect from such date as the Council may appoint and shall forthwith give notice of any such determination to the Registrar.
- (2) On receipt of the notice of a determination made by the Council under subsection (1) in relation to any person, the Registrar shall forthwith cause the name of that person to be restored to the register or, as the case may be, cause a note of the cessation of the suspension to be entered therein, and in either such case—
 - (a) shall cause notice of the determination of the Council to be published in Gazette; and
 - (b) shall cause the certificate of registration returned under section 39\(3\) to be reissued to that person.
