Part II – General

3. Application for pension, gratuity or allowance

- (1) An application for a pension, gratuity or allowance shall be made in an approved form and within the time limits specified in these Regulations.
- (2) Where it appears to the Chief Executive Officer that a person who has made an application for a pension, gratuity or allowance is entitled to a pension, gratuity or allowance other than the one specified in the application, the Chief Executive Officer may with the approval of the applicant treat the application as an application for the pension, gratuity or allowance to which the person is entitled.
- (3) An applicant for a pension, gratuity or allowance, who due to an incapacity is unable to act, may authorise in writing any other person to act on his behalf in respect of his application and for his pension, gratuity or allowance to be made out to or collected by the authorised person or to be paid into the account of the authorised person, which authorisation shall be attested by 2 adults not being the authorised person.
- (4) The Chief Executive officer shall upon receipt of an authorisation under subregulation (3) make all the necessary enquiries, including contacting the witnesses to the authorisation and shall keep a written record of his enquiries and findings, in order to satisfy himself that the authorisation is a genuine one and the applicant has not given it under duress.

4. Supporting evidence etc.

A person applying for a pension, gratuity or allowance shall, in addition to any certificate, document or evidence he is required to furnish under any other provision of these Regulations, furnish such other certificate, information and evidence as the Chief Executive Officer may require in any particular case, and shall, if reasonably required, attend at such place and time as the Chief Executive Officer may require, for the purpose of the determination of the claim.

5. Nomination of beneficiary

- (1) A member making any nomination under these Regulations may nominate one or more persons to be paid his benefits in accordance with these Regulations in the event of the member's death prior to his retirement.
- (2) The nomination shall be made in the approved form attested by 2 adults other than the nominee.
- (3) A nomination may be changed at anytime but the last nomination shall always supersede the earlier one whether formally revoked or not.
- (4) A member who makes any voluntary contributions to the Fund, may at any time prior to his death subject to Regulation 7, nominate in the approved form any person to be entitled to his voluntary contribution if any, standing to his credit in the Fund at the time of his death prior to his retirement and such nominated person shall be entitled to the aforesaid contribution upon the member's death prior to his retirement.
- (5) Where a member fails to make any nomination under subregulation (4), his heirs shall subject to regulation 7, be entitled to any voluntary contribution, standing to his credit in the Fund.

6. Time limits for claim

- (1) Where an application for a pension, gratuity or allowance is referred back to the applicant because it is defective, incomplete or without the supporting documents, the applicant shall provide the required information and re-submit the application for consideration before it can be processed.
- (2) Where upon an application, the Chief Executive Officer wishes to be fully satisfied that an application, allegation or statement made is genuine, he may carry out an investigation to obtain proof of the said allegation or statement.

7. Use of voluntary contribution as a security

Where a member has notified the Chief Executive Officer in writing of his decision to use his voluntary contribution as a security for a housing loan or a loan for medical treatment and a security provided the Chief Executive Officer with details of the loan transaction, if the loan has not been repaid in full at the time of his death or retirement, the voluntary contribution shall not be refunded or taken into account for calculation of the member's retirement pension under regulation 13 until proof is provided to the Chief Executive Officer of the discharge of the loan.

Part III – Retirement pension

8. Entitlement to retirement pension

- (1) A member who qualifies for a retirement pension under section 33 of the Act shall, if he has resided in Seychelles for continuous period of at least 5 years immediately prior to his retirement unless such requirement is waived by the Board, be entitled to a retirement pension for life upon retirement at the age of 60 or above, calculated on the member's average salary for the last 5 years preceding his retirement and payable in accordance with Schedule 1.
- (2) A member referred to in subregulation (1) shall, upon his application for his retirement pension under these Regulations being granted, be simultaneously entitled to the retirement pension provided for under the Social Security Act notwithstanding that he may not have attained the prescribed retirement age.
- (3) Where a member who is above the age of 51 years old and is either a registered or licensed self-employed person at (the time of coming into operation of the Act and remains so employed until retirement but however at the time of retirement does not qualify for a retirement pension due to not having contributed to the Fund or Social Security Fund for the minimum period referred to in section 33 of the Act, the member shall be entitled to a retirement pension in accordance with Schedule 1, subsidised with funds provided from the Consolidated Fund.

- (4) Where a member has been drawing more than one salary per month prior to retirement, his retirement pension shall be based on the average of the highest monthly salary earned over the period of five years preceding retirement.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, a member or a person who does not qualify for a retirement pension under these Regulations shall upon attaining the prescribed retirement age be entitled to the retirement pension payable for the time being under the Social Security Act and to any contributions standing to the credit of the member in the Fund at the date of the member attaining the prescribed retirement age together with any interest thereon, as a lump sum payment.

9. Salary that is to be used for self-employed member's pension

- (1) Where a member has left employment and thereafter within a period of 90 days commenced his or her own business as a registered or licensed self-employed person, within less than 5 years prior to retirement, his retirement pension shall be based on the average of his declared salary he was earning for the last five years as a self-employed person and an employee.
- (2) Where a self-employed member does not declare a salary, the monthly average salary for determining his retirement pension shall be the average yearly profit declared with the Taxation Division for business tax calculation during the period of 5 years preceding retirement divided by 12.
- (3) Where no such profit has been made or no such record is available, the average monthly salary for the purpose of calculating the retirement pension shall be R2,000.

10. Salary that is to be used for member who is not working at retirement

Where a member who already qualifies for a pension under section 33 of the Act, leaves employment and thereafter does not take up any employment no further contributions are made to the Fund, until his retirement, the member shall on retirement be entitled to a retirement pension based on his average salary he was earning for the last five years as an employee or as a self-employed person prior to leaving employment.
