 - (vi) other countries identified by the reporting entity as higher-risk because of its prior experiences or other factors.

[Please note: numbering as in original.]

- (3) Where a reporting entity applies enhanced customer due diligence, in addition to retaining sufficient information in order to demonstrate that the particular business relationship or transaction presents a higher degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing, it shall—
- (a) adjust the extent, or type of measures it undertakes to reflect the higher risk identified under subregulation (2); and
 - (b) carry out enhanced on going monitoring of any business relationship or transactions which are subject to those measures to enable it to identify any unusual or suspicious activities or transactions.
- (4) Enhanced customer due diligence measures required under this regulation, includes—
- (a) obtaining the approval of senior management before a business relationship is established with the customer;
 - (b) taking adequate measures to establish the source of wealth and source of funds which are involved in the proposed business relationship or one-off transaction;
 - (c) seeking additional independent, reliable sources, to verify information provided or made available to the reporting entity;
 - (d) taking additional measures to understand the background, ownership and financial situation of the customer and other parties to the transaction;
 - (e) taking further steps to satisfy that the transaction is consistent with the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship;
 - (f) increasing the monitoring of the business relationship, including greater scrutiny of transactions; and
 - (g) applying such other measures provided in the guidelines issued by the respective supervisory authorities to identify the higher risk of money laundering, terrorist financing activities or other criminal conduct.

- (5) In the case, where the customer is an NPO associated with a high-risk jurisdiction or in any other case which by the nature of its activities may present a higher risk of money laundering and terrorist financing or any other criminal conduct, the reporting entity shall determine—
- (a) that the NPO is properly licensed or registered;
 - (b) the adequacy of the NPO's anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism policies, procedures and controls;
 - (c) the NPO's legal, regulatory and supervisory status including requirements relating to regulatory disclosure, accounting, financial reporting and audit;
 - (d) the NPO's ownership and management structure, to include the possibility of politically exposed person's involvement;
 - (e) the nature and scope of the NPO's activities, nature of its donor base, and the beneficiaries of its activities and programs; and

- (6) Three members of the Appeals Board shall constitute the quorum.

- (7) (a) The Minister shall, upon determining, terminate the appointment of a Member—
- (i) who has been found guilty of any misconduct, default or breach of trust in the discharge of that Member's duties; or
 - (ii) who has been found guilty of an offence of such nature, which renders it desirable that the Member's appointment be terminated; or
 - (iii) has been found guilty of failure to declare their direct or indirect interest in the outcome of any appeal under section 61 (4) of the Act;
- (b) Who is mentally or physically incapable of efficiently discharging functions as a Member of the Appeals Board; and
- (c) Who has been absent from the Appeals Board for more than three consecutive meetings without any just cause and after giving a reasonable notice in that regard and an opportunity was given to explain the reasons for not attending the meetings.
- (8) Upon submission of a notice in writing to the Minister of the intention to resign from the Membership of the Appeals Board, the Minister may terminate the appointment of such Member after such period as the Member and the Minister may agree.
- (9) The Committee shall appoint from amongst the staff of the members of the National Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism Committee, other than those from the Supervisory Authorities, a Secretary to the Appeals Board and the Secretary shall—
- (a) be responsible to maintain the records of the Appeals Board; and
 - (b) perform such other duties as the Appeals Board may direct.
- (10) (a) Member of the Appeals Board shall be paid remuneration as per the Remuneration Policy and Framework on Fees for Boards and Government Committees, as amended from time to time.
- (b) The remuneration, expenditure and administrative support for the Appeals Board shall be the shared responsibility of the anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism supervisory authorities in accordance with section 61 (6) of the Act.

20. Form, manner and fee for filing an appeal before Appeals Board

- (1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a supervisory authority may within 30 days of the delivery of the decision, make an appeal against the said decision, to the Appeals Board in the Form of a memorandum of appeal specified in the Second Schedule to these regulations, before an officer of the Ministry of Finance as may be designated by that Ministry.
- (2) An appeal under sub-regulation (1) shall be accompanied by—
- (a) a fee of SCR1,000; and
 - (b) a copy of the decision of the supervisory authority against which the appeal has been filed.
- (3) The Secretary of the Appeals Board shall enter the particulars of the appeal received under sub-regulation (1) in the register maintained for the said purpose.
- (4) The memorandum of appeal submitted under sub-regulation (1) shall state—
- (a) the name, address and contact information of the appellant;
 - (b) the name, address and contact information of the appellant's legal representative, if any;
 - (c) the address for service in Seychelles;
 - (d) the name of the supervisory authority whose decision has been appealed;
 - (e) a brief statement of the facts and dates necessary for the decision of the Appeals Board;

- (f) a summary of the grounds on which appeal has been preferred;
 - (g) the relief sought by the appellant and whether an order is sought; and
 - (h) a copy of the determination, direction, decision, sanction or remedy of the supervisory authority.
- (5) The memorandum of appeal shall be signed by the appellant or the authorised legal representative.
- (6) Where the appellant is a body corporate, the memorandum of appeal shall be signed by any director or other officer or a legal representative authorised by it, to do so.
- (7) Where the appellant is a partnership, the memorandum of appeal shall be signed by one of the partners or its legal representative authorised by the partners, to do so.
- (8) The appellant may, at any time with the permission of the Appeals Board amend the memorandum of appeal on an application submitted to the Appeals Board in writing giving the details of the amendments proposed in the memorandum of appeal.
- (9) The Appeals Board shall not grant permission under sub-regulation (8), where the appellant proposes a new ground for contesting the decision unless—
- (a) the ground is based on matters of law or fact which have come to light after the appeal was filed;
 - (b) it was not practicable at the time of filing the appeal, to include that ground in the memorandum of appeal;
 - (c) it is reasonable in the circumstances to allow the amendment; and
 - (d) the request to amend the memorandum of appeal is made as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant matter of law or fact have been identified by the appellant.
- (10) An appeal against the decision of the supervisory authority shall not be construed as a suspension of the decision of the supervisory authority unless otherwise directed by the Appeals Board.
- (11) On receiving the memorandum of appeal, the Appeals Board shall as soon as reasonably practicable —
- (a) send an acknowledgement of the receipt to the appellant; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the memorandum of appeal to the relevant supervisory authority.
- (12) Where the Appeals Board considers that the memorandum of appeal is materially incomplete or lacking in clarity, the Appeals Board may issue such orders, as may be necessary for the admission of the appeal.
- (13) Where the appellant has not remedied the defect pursuant to an order under sub-regulation (12), the Appeals Board may dismiss the appeal with or without an order for costs.
- (14) The Appeals Board shall proceed to hear the appeal on such date and time as the Appeals Board may determine, from the date of submission of the documents by the parties to the appeal.
- (15) All the documents filed with the Appeals Board, except exhibits and forms supplied by the Committee, shall be printed or typewritten on one side only of plain white paper measuring eight and one-half by eleven inches with adequate margins and shall be clearly legible, and signed by the party or their legal practitioner.
- (16) No document, including letters or other writings, shall be filed by a party with the Appeals Board unless service of a copy thereof is made on all parties together with the filing of proof of service.
- (17) The Appeals Board, before making any order, shall give the appellant an opportunity to be heard and to produce the relevant documents, the appellant wishes to produce.

- (18) The Appeals Board shall, at the request of the appellant, supervisory authority or on its own motion, summon any witnesses to give evidence or produce documents.
- (19) The Appeals Board shall—
 - (a) duly consider the written decision of the supervisory authority and any other document that forms part of the record of appeal; and
 - (b) advise the party to the proceedings of their right to be represented by a legal practitioner of their choice.
- (20) Where the legal practitioner representing the party to the proceedings fails to attend the proceedings before the Appeals Board, the Appeals Board may proceed in their absence.
- (21) The appellant may by written notice to the Appeals Board withdraw an appeal.
- (22) Save as otherwise provided, the practice and procedure before the Appeals Board shall be as informal as possible, to the end that a final determination of the matter before it may be promptly reached and as far as practicable, conform to the practice and procedure of the Supreme Court.
- (23) Where two or more appeals have been made in respect of the same subject matter or which involve the same or similar facts, the Appeals Board may order that the appeals or any particular issue or matter raised in the appeals be consolidated or heard together, and—
 - (a) before making an order under this sub-regulation, the appellants and the supervisory authority shall be invited to make representations in writing or orally on the consolidation of the proceedings;
 - (b) the Secretary shall as soon as practicable, notify the appellants and the supervisory authority of any order consolidating the proceedings.
- (24) Hearing of the appeal may be adjourned by the Appeals Board of its own motion or where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Appeals Board that the adjournment is required to, inter alia, permit a thorough hearing to be held or to allow the party to be represented.
- (25) An appeal against the decision of the Appeals Board shall not operate as a suspension of the decision of the Appeals Board unless otherwise directed by the Supreme Court.

Part VIII – Appointment of examiners

21. Appointment of examiners

- (1) The head of a supervisory authority may appoint a suitably qualified person as an examiner under section 58 (3) or (4) of the Act, for the purpose of ensuring the compliance with the provisions of the Act by the respective reporting entity.
