Repeal and replacement of section 7

6. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 7 and substituting it with the following —

“The Chief Executive Officer

7.(1) The Board shall, in consultation with the President through the Minister, appoint the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be appointed for such term as the Board may determine, not exceeding three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The salary and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the Chief Executive Officer shall be in accordance with Government policies.

(4) The Chief Executive Officer —

- (a) shall be responsible for the implementation of the decisions of the Authority and for the management of the day-to-day affairs of the Authority;
- (b) may, subject to the direction of the Board, sign documents on behalf of the Authority;
- (c) may delegate any of his or her functions to the Deputy Chief Executive Officer or any other employee of the Authority.”

Insertion of new section 7A.

7. The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 7, the following new section —

“Appointment of a Deputy Chief Executive Officer

7A.(1) The Board shall, in consultation with the President through the Minister, appoint the Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Authority.

(2) The Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall be appointed for such term as the Board may determine not exceeding three years, and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The salary and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall be in accordance with Government policies.

(4) The Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall perform such functions as the Chief Executive Officer may assign or delegate to him or her.

(5) The Deputy Chief Executive Officer may act in the office of the Chief Executive Officer —

- (a) during a vacancy in the office of the Chief Executive Officer; or
- (b) during any period in which the Chief Executive Officer is absent from duty or is unable to perform the functions of that office.”

Repeal and replacement of section 8

8. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 8 and substituting it with the following —

“Appointment of a Harbour Master

8.(1) The Board shall appoint a Harbour Master on such terms and conditions as the Board shall determine.

(2) The Harbour Master shall perform his or her functions under the direction of the Chief Executive Officer which shall include —

- (a) enforcement of this Act and subsidiary legislation made under this Act;
- (b) assisting in drafting policies and standards in line with both national and international maritime laws to ensure conformity with the operations of the Authority;
- (c) acting as the operational maritime advisor to the Board, the Ministry and management of the Authority on matters concerning port safety and security, port maritime operations and port management;

- (d) planning and coordination of maritime port operations and services on behalf of the Authority; and
- (e) ensuring that the Port's mandate to the Authority has efficient ship-to-shore interface.

(3) Where any vessel is sunk or abandoned in any harbour, the Harbour Master shall contact the Seychelles Maritime Safety Authority as receiver of wrecks to request the appropriate disposal of the vessel.”

Insertion of new sections 8A, 8B, 8C and 8D.

9. The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 8 the following new sections —

“Deputy Harbour Master

8A.(1) The Board may appoint the Deputy Harbour Master of the Authority.

(2) The Deputy Harbour Master shall discharge the functions of the Harbour Master —

- (a) during a vacancy in the office of the Harbour Master; or
- (b) during the period in which the Harbour Master is absent from duty or is unable to perform the functions of that office.

(3) The Deputy Harbour Master shall perform such other functions as the Harbour Master may delegate to him or her.

Salvage operations

8B.(1) The Authority shall, through the Harbour Master and subject to any permission required by the Chief Executive Officer, have the power to conduct salvage operations in the inner harbour, outer harbour, Seychelles waters, high seas or in another foreign jurisdiction.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the Authority shall be remunerated in accordance with the framework in place governing salvage, depending on the jurisdiction where the salvage activity occurred.

Recovery of harbour dues by court proceedings

8C. Without prejudice to any other remedy, the Authority may recover harbour dues payable in respect of a vessel from the owner, master or agent of such vessel by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Pilotage

8D.(1) The Board may appoint such number of qualified persons as the Board may deem fit to act as pilots in and for any one or more of the Seychelles islands.

(2) Any pilot shall, besides the conduct of ships and vessels, discharge such other duties as the Authority may delegate.

(3) The Authority shall, as soon as possible after the appointment of a pilot, furnish a security bond through an approved guarantee society in the sum of SCR15, 000.

(4) The bond under subsection (3) shall be a condition for —

(a) the careful pilotage of ships and vessels, which the pilot shall conduct in the execution of his or her office; and

- (b) his or her proper observance of all laws and regulations or orders affecting his or her office.

(5) The Authority shall not be responsible to any party aggrieved by any act done by any pilot in the execution of his or her office beyond the amount of the security bond of such pilot, and such responsibility shall cease on the production by the Authority of the said bond.

(6) Any party aggrieved by any act of a pilot in the execution of his or her office may recover from the Authority and the guarantee society the amount of such security bond or any portion of it which may seem just to a competent court.

(7) A list of pilots appointed under this Act shall be affixed to a conspicuous part of the office of the Authority, and disseminated by any appropriate means.

(8) There shall be compulsory pilotage for vessels of 150 Gross Tonnage and above coming in, going out, anchoring, berthing, unberthing and shifting into the inner harbour, except where the Harbour Master issues exemptions and conditions, whenever required.

(9) Notwithstanding anything in any written law, the owner or master of a vessel navigating under circumstances in which pilotage is compulsory shall be answerable for any loss or damage caused by the vessel or by any fault of the navigation of the vessel in the same manner as he or she would if pilotage were not compulsory.”

Insertion of new section 10A.

10. The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 10, the following new section —

“Specific powers

10A.(1) The Authority shall be responsible for the management and administration of all ports in Seychelles.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the Minister may, by order, designate any areas within or in the vicinity of the harbour as an artisanal and semi-industrial fishing port of Seychelles.

(3) The Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for fisheries may make regulations with respect to the administration and control of any artisanal and semi-industrial fishing port of Seychelles and, for that purpose may confer or impose powers and duties on the Seychelles Fishing Authority, including powers to make changes and levy fees in prescribed circumstances.

(4) The Minister may, by order, define and designate any harbour, port, port facility, quay, port security area, and define lawful wharves, landing places, mooring places and marinas for the purposes of regulations made under this Act.

(5) All activities conducted on the premises demarcated as port premises shall be subject to terms and conditions specified by the Authority.”

Amendment of section 16

11. Section 16 of the principal Act is amended by repealing subsection (3) and substituting it with the following —

“(3) The provisions relating to audit of accounts or the law governing the monitoring of public enterprises shall apply in respect of the appointment of auditors to audit the accounts of the Authority.”

Amendment of section 17

12. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 17 and substituting it with the following —

“Annual report

17. The Authority shall prepare an annual report on its operations and shall, within three months after the end of each financial year submit it together with a copy of its annual audited accounts and any report by the auditors on its management and accounting practices, to the —

- (a) Minister;
- (b) Minister of Finance; and
- (c) Public Enterprise Monitoring Commission.”

Insertion of new sections 19A and 19B.

13. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 19, the following new sections —

“Liability of a master or agent of a vessel

19A. In the event of default of obligations by a vessel, the master, owner or appointed agent of the vessel shall be liable to the Authority for breach of this Act or regulations made under this Act by the vessel and shall bear the costs payable to the Authority.”

Offences and penalties

19B.(1) Any person who has not been appointed a pilot under this Act, and pilots any ship or vessel into or out of the harbour limits as prescribed by this Act, commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level 7 on the Standard Scale without prejudice in any such case to any action in damages in which he or she may be answerable for any act done by him or her.

(2) Any master or other person in charge of a ship or vessel, who willfully employs as a pilot any person who is not qualified under this Act to act as a pilot commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level 7 on the Standard Scale or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply where any unqualified person is employed as a pilot to conduct a ship or vessel when such ship or vessel was in distress, or under circumstances which rendered it necessary for the master or person in charge of the ship or vessel to avail himself or herself of the best assistance which could be procured at the time.”

Amendment of section 20

14. Section 20 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by renumbering the existing section as subsection (1);
- (b) by inserting after subsection (1), the following new subsections —

“(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations made under that subsection may provide for —
