POLITICAL PARTIES (REGISTRATION AND REGULATION)
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2020

(Bill No. 24 of 2020)

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Electoral Commission, in 2017, reviewed the electoral legal framework in order to ensure the furtherance of democratic principles, effective representation and the creation of conditions that are conducive to fair electoral competition and after consultation with political parties and civil society representatives, submitted its Recommendations for Reforms in December 2017.

The Recommendations for Reforms have been examined in consultation with the Electoral Commission and it has been considered necessary to amend the laws relating to elections. Hence, based on the Recommendations for Reforms, the Political Parties (Registration and Regulation) Act (Cap 173) is proposed to be amended. Before agreeing to the proposed amendments, the Electoral Commission has also made consultation with, and apprised, the representatives of the registered political parties on the proposed amendments.

Accordingly, the Political Parties (Registration and Regulation) (Amendment) Bill, 2020, amongst other things, proposes to —

- (a) amend section 3 so as to provide that the symbol, logo and the acronym of the political party shall also registered at the time of its registration;
- (b) amend section 5 so as to prescribe the procedure to be followed by the Electoral Commission on receipt of an application for registration of a political party in time-bound manner;
- (c) amend section 7 to enable the Electoral Commission to refuse the registration of a political party if the name, logo or acronym of the party is identical or so nearly resembles with another political party or the name of a person has been endorsed as a registered member in the application for registration of the party without the consent or knowledge of the person;

- (d) amend section 24 to provide that —
- (i) political parties are required to disclose the source of receipts and identities of persons in respect of whom expenditure is incurred whereas at present it provides that they disclose the latter or the former;
 - (ii) identity of persons in respect of whom expenditure was incurred shall be disclosed where the expenditure exceeded SCR5,000 whereas at present the identity of all persons in respect of whom expenditure is incurred is to be disclosed;
 - (iii) subsections (3A) and (3B) are repealed so that the Electoral Commission may reveal or publish the identity of any person disclosed under a financial statement;
 - (iv) the Electoral Commission may from time to time, upon receipt of financial statement, issue public reports disclosing the total funds received by each candidate or political party and its sources and that it shall be mandatory that where the fund received from a person exceeds SCR50,000, that the details disclosed in the statement shall be made public and shall be posted on the Commission's website;
- (e) amend section 29 to provide that — (i) the allocation to political parties shall be on quarterly basis; (ii) amount shall be paid in advance in the quarter the general election is to be held; (iii) following the result of general election amount shall be recalculated proportionally; and (iv) the amount shall also be calculated pro-rata from the first day of quarter after which the general election was held to 31st December of that year.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Dated this 31st day of July, 2020.

“(4) The sum each political party is entitled to receive under subsection (2) or subsection (3) may be paid quarterly in advance on or before 30th January, 30th April, 31st July and 31st October or in such manner and at such times as the Commission may, in consultation with the political party, determine.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), in an election year, the amount to be paid to political parties under subsection (2) shall be paid in advance for the quarter in which the general election is to be held.

(6) Following the results of the general election of the National Assembly, the amount to be paid to political parties shall be recalculated proportionally according to the total number of valid votes cast in favour of the candidates nominated by that party for the immediate preceding general election of the National Assembly.

(7) The amount payable shall be proportional to the number of votes cast in favour of those candidates against the total number of valid votes cast at the last general election of the National Assembly.

(8) That amount shall also be calculated prorata from the first day of the quarter after which the general election was held to 31st December of that year and any payment may be made quarterly in accordance with subsection (2).”.

ELECTIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2020*(Bill No. 25 of 2020)OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Electoral Commission, in 2017, reviewed the electoral legal framework in order to ensure the furtherance of democratic principles, effective representation and the creation of conditions that are conducive to fair electoral competition and after consultation with political parties and civil society representatives, submitted its Recommendations for Reforms in December 2017.

The Recommendations for Reforms have been examined in consultation with the Electoral Commission and it has been considered necessary to amend the laws relating to elections. Hence, based on the Recommendations for Reforms, the Elections Act (Cap 262) is proposed to be amended. Before agreeing to the proposed amendments, the Electoral Commission has also made consultation with, and apprised, the representatives of the registered political parties on the proposed amendments.

Accordingly, the Elections (Amendment) Bill, 2020, amongst other things, proposes to —

- (a) define certain terms “rejected ballot paper”; “spoiled ballot paper”; “total votes cast”; “valid votes cast”; and “votes cast in favour of a candidate”;
- (b) provide for the appointment of Deputy Electoral Officers;
- (c) provide that the staff/officer appointed should be of proven integrity and does not demonstrate partisanship to any person or political party;
- (d) to require the Chief Registration Officer to prepare annually a list of persons per electoral area who have turned or will turn 100 by 31st December of that year and carry out a verification of residence for each of these persons and revise the register of voters accordingly;

- (e) enable to the Electoral Commission to separate the register of an electoral area into such sections as it finds fit and each shall be certified for the purposes of facilitating alphabetical voting;
 - (f) reduce the number of supporters for the purpose of endorsement for a candidate to 50 supporters for a candidate wishing to stand in a Presidential election and to 10 supporters for a candidate wishing to stand in a National Assembly election;
 - (g) specify that where a candidate uses the name of a person without his knowledge or consent as an endorsement of his nomination, his nomination shall be rejected and the candidates are also required to provide a copy of the National Identity cards of all persons listed as their supporters so as to allow confirmation of genuineness of signatures;
 - (h) substitute section 15A relating to postponment of nomination day so as provide the guidance on process to be followed on the next day;
 - (i) provide for arrangements at the polling stations for a separate queue and voting facility for the aged, pregnant, and those requiring assisted voting process in addition to alphabetical voting so as to minimise the time that vulnerable persons spend at the polling station;
 - (j) provide that only one polling agent for each candidate shall be posted at a separate voting facility (rather than at the station) at any one time;
 - (k) provide that each ballot paper shall be perforated to facilitate removal from stubs and each stub shall have a serial number;
 - (l) provide that a person wishing to vote has to appear personally at a polling station and follows the instructions of the Electoral Officer and also follows the queue according to alphabetical grouping;
 - (m) provide for calling out of the voter's full name and page number and line number where his particulars are found instead of his number and all his particulars;
 - (n) define “incapacitated voter” and to provide the procedure in relation to assistance extended to such voter for helping him to vote and provide qualifications of a person who can assist him;

- (o) provide for additional steps to procedures to be followed after close of poll and also to provide new procedures to be followed in completing the statement known as the ballot paper account for National Assembly elections and Presidential election and for referendum to ensure that all ballot papers issued to an electoral area including used, unused, spoilt and stamped, and spoilt and unstamped are accounted for;
- (p) provide that the Chief Electoral Officer explains the security features of the ballot papers to the Electoral Officer and the Electoral Officers discloses the security features to the candidates or counting agents prior to opening the first ballot box for counting and other process relating thereto;
- (q) provide that the entering of a person's name on the list of supporters by a candidate without his consent or knowledge is made an offence under section 51 and punishable by imprisonment of three years and a fine of SR20,000;
- (r) require the submission of “statement of the number of persons and the amount of funds received” in place of “statement of funds received” and requiring the Electoral Commission to maintain the records thereof and publish it from time to time;
- (s) insert two new sections to provide for the limit on expenditure by candidates and political parties and to provide for voting record analysis by the Electoral Commission after the expiry of 6 months following an election and to publish it in such manner as it considers appropriate.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Dated this 31st day of July, 2020.
