S.I. 88 of 2014INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY ACT, 2014(Act 7 of 2014)Industrial Property (Layout-design) Regulations, 2014

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 125 of the Industrial Property Act, 2014, the President being the Minister responsible for Legal Affairs hereby makes the following regulations—

PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Industrial Property (Layout-design) Regulations, 2014.

Citation

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation

“Act” means the Industrial Property Act, 2014 (Act 7 of 2014);

“agent” means a person or firm appointed by an applicant to act on his or her behalf for the purposes of these regulations;

“Form” means a Form set out in Schedule 1 appended to these regulations;

“original layout-design” means a layout-design of integrated circuit that is the result of its creator's own intellectual effort and is not commonplace among creators of layout-design and manufacturers of integrated circuits at the time of its creation.

3.(1) A layout-design which is original shall only be registered under these regulations.

Original
layout-design

5.(1) If two or more persons have made the same layout-design separately and independently of each other, the right to the registration shall belong to the person who filed an application for such layout-design, or where two or more applications are filed for the same layout-design, to the applicant who has the earliest filing date.

(2) The right to registration under subregulation (1) shall be subject to the limitations as provided under section 60 of the Act and the resolution in an appropriate proceeding of the issue of originality.

(3) Where two or more applications for the same layout-design created separately and independently of each other have the same filing date, the registration shall be issued jointly to the applicants of all such applications.

6.(1) The fees to be paid under these regulations shall be as provided under column (2) of Schedule 2 to these regulations for a service mentioned under column (1) of that Schedule.

(2) The fees specified in Schedule 2 shall be paid to the Registrar upon the filing of the application by such means and in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

7.(1) Every application and document under these regulations shall be in English or be accompanied with a certified English translation.

(2) The Registrar shall refuse any application or document which is not in English unless the applicant submits to the Registrar a certified translation of the application or document into English.

PART 2 - REGISTRATION OF LAYOUT-DESIGN

8.(1) An application for registration of the layout-design shall be made to the Registrar in Form LDC-1 accompanied with the fee specified under Schedule 2.

(2) A layout-design consisting of a combination of elements and interconnections that are commonplace shall be registered only if the combination, taken as a whole, is original.

4.(1) The right of registration of a layout-design belongs to the creator of the layout-design.

(2) Without prejudice to subregulation (1), the right of registration of the layout-design shall—

(a) where two or more persons have jointly created a layout-design, the right to the registration belong to them jointly;

(b) where the layout-design was created pursuant to a contract on commission, the right to the registration belongs to the person who commissioned the work, unless otherwise provided in the contract; and

(c) where the layout-design was created by an employee in the course of the contract of employment, the right to the registration belong to—

(i) the employee, if the creation of the layout-design is not part of employee's regular duties even if the employee uses the time, facilities and materials of the employer; or

(ii) the employer, if the layout-design is the result of the performance of employee's regularly assigned duties, unless there is an agreement, express or implied, to the contrary.

(3) The creator of a layout-design may assign in writing the right to registration of such layout-design on any other person.

- (2) The application shall contain the details specified in section 57(2) of the Act.
- (3) The applicant may submit other relevant information or data regarding the layout-design including the title thereof, if any.
- (4) The application may be accompanied by a specimen of the article embodying the layout-design.

Who may make an application

9.(1) The creator of the layout-design or his or her heirs, legal representative or assignee, as the case may be, or any person in the name of creator, may make an application for registration of the layout-design.

(2) If the applicant becomes insane or incapacitated, the legally appointed administrator may make the application for registration of the layout-design and obtain the certification of registration in the name of the creator of the layout-design.

(3) In case the whole interest in the layout-design is assigned, the application may be made by or in the name of the assignee who may sign the application.

(4) In case the assignee is a juridical person, any officer thereof may sign the application on behalf of the assignee.

(5) In case of an aliquot portion or undivided interest in the layout-design, any of the joint owners may make the application.

Appointment of resident agent or representative

10.(1) An applicant who is not a resident in Seychelles shall appoint an agent or representative who is resident in Seychelles upon whom notice or process for judicial or administrative procedure in respect of the registration of the layout-design shall be served subject to the condition that—

(a) in case there are two or more persons appointed by the applicant, the Registrar shall forward all actions to the last agent or representative appointed;

(b) in case the agent or representative has appointed an attorney or associate attorney with the written authorisation of the applicant, the Registrar shall forward all actions to the attorney or associate attorney appointed.

(2) The applicant may, at any stage in the proceedings, revoke the appointment of attorney or associate attorney or authorisation to appoint attorney by notice in writing to the Registrar.

(3) The Registrar shall notify the agent or representative or attorney, as the case may be, of such revocation.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation, any action of the Registrar forwarded to the agent or representative or attorney, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the notice to the applicant.

According to filing date

11. The Registrar shall, on being satisfied that application is complete in all respect, accord as the filing date of the application the date of its receipt of the fully accomplished application together with the requisite fee and the drawings, photographs or adequate representations of the layout-design as provided for in these regulations.

Registration
publication

12.(1) Where the application complies with the requirements of section 57 of the Act in these regulations, the Registrar shall register the layout-design in the Register of Layout-design without examination of the originality of the layout-design, the right of the applicant to protection or the accuracy of the facts detailed in the application.

(2) The Register of Layout-design shall contain the following—

- (a) name, nationality and address of the rights holders;
 - (b) reference number;
 - (c) title of the layout-design;
 - (d) filing date; and
 - (e) where indicated in the application under section 57(2)(d) of the Act, the date of the first commercial exploitation, anywhere in the world of the layout-design.
- (3) The Registrar shall publish in the Gazette the layout-design as soon as it is registered.

Certificate of registration

13.(1) The certificate of registration shall be issued on payment of the fee specified in Schedule 2, in the name of the Republic of Seychelles under the seal of the Registrar and shall be signed by the Registrar, and registered together with the drawings, if any, and such other relevant data in the books and records of the Registrar.

(2) The certificate of registration shall contain the name, nationality, address, of the creator, reference number and period of validity.

Term of registration of layout design

14.(1) The registration of a layout-design shall be valid for a period of 10 years, to be counted from the date of commencement of the protection accorded to the layout-design.

(2) The protection of a layout-design shall commence —

- (a) on the date of the first commercial exploitation, anywhere in the world, of the layout-design by or with the consent of the right holder, provided that an application for registration is filed with the Registrar within 2 years from such date of first commercial exploitation; or

- (b) on the filing date accorded to the application for the registration of the layout-design if the layout-design has not been previously exploited commercially anywhere in the world.

15.(1) An application for any change of the ownership, assignment, surrender, amendment, corrections or other modification in connection with the registration of the layout-design shall be made to the Registrar in Form LDC-2 along with the fees specified in Schedule 2.

Change of ownership, assignment, surrender, amendment, corrections and other changes

(2) The application shall be accompanied with an affidavit and proof if any, in support of the request.

(3) The Registrar may require such person to submit additional proof to substantiate his or her request.

(4) Where no proof in support of the application or additional proof as required under subregulation (3) is submitted, the application shall be rejected.

(5) Where the requisite fee for the change as provided for in subregulation (1) is not paid, the application shall be deemed not filed.

Cancellation of registration

16.(1) Where a court has notified the Registrar of its final decision under section 63(6) of the Act invalidating the registration of a layout-design or part thereof, the registration of the layout-design or part thereof shall be void from the beginning and the entries of the layout-design or part thereof shall be deleted from the Register of Layout-design.

(2) The Registrar shall publish in the Gazette the cancellation of the registration of the layout-design or part thereof.

Non-voluntary licence

17.(1) An application for non-voluntary licence of a registered layout-design shall be made to the Registrar in writing containing a statement giving the evidence that the applicant was unable to obtain a licence in accordance with section 24(2) of the Act.

(2) The application for non-voluntary licence shall be made in Form LDC-3 accompanied with a fee specified in Schedule 2.

(3) The Registrar may only grant non-voluntary licences of registered layout-design for non-commercial use or to remedy a practice determined after judicial or administrative process to be anti-competitive.

(4) Upon a direction from the judicial or administrative process, the Registrar shall amend the Register of Layout-design and record the decision and publish the decision in the Gazette as soon as possible.

PART 3 - MISCELLANEOUS

Infringement

18. In case of any infringement of the registered layout-design, any action may be brought in accordance with sections 107 to 120 of the Act.

Invalidation

19.(1) An application for invalidation of the registration of a layout-design may be made to the Supreme Court.

(2) Upon receipt of any decision of the court on the application for invalidation of the registration of a layout-design, the Registrar shall —

- (a) record the content of the decision;
- (b) amend the Register of Layout-design; and
- (c) publish a notice to this effect in the Gazette, within one month.

20. Any person may inspect the Register of Layout-designs or records and files of the Registrar with respect to the registration of layout-design and may obtain extract therefrom, by submitting an application in Form LDC-4 along with a fee specified in Schedule 2.
